

NEARING COMPLETION — Pan Canadian Petroleum's new office and shop complex is nearly ready for occupancy, and makes a handsome addition to Elk Point's Industrial Subdivision.

ERCB approval given to Pan Canadian project

While Pan Canadian Petroleum Limited has been given Energy Conservation Board (ERCB) approval for phase one of a proposed three-phase commercial oil sands project in the Elk Point area, in all likelihood the depressed oil market will see major expenditures for the project held up until at least 1989.

George Little, Pan Canadian's corporate secretary, pointed out that while the company still plans to proceed with the project in the future, present oil prices make it economically unwise to pursue immediate development.

"At the time when we applied to the ERCB for approval the economic conditions in the oil industry were a little different from what they are now," Little said.

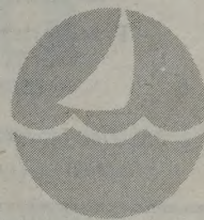

But if and when it does go ahead the total capital expenditure on the project, with a life span of 20 years, is expected to reach the $91 million mark. The average size of the work force, on an annual basis, over the project life will range from 12 to 34 people.

The ERCB approval authorizes a reduction in well spacing to 16

Chamber sets first meeting

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce has set their first meeting of the 1986-87 season for Tuesday, September 2, at 7:30 p.m. in the Community Services Centre.

The evening meeting time was chosen to allow a maximum number of local business people to attend. Good attendance at this meeting is vital, in order to elect a new executive to operate the Chamber during the upcoming year, as this is the final meeting for the 1985-86 executive.

A number of topics of interest to the business community will be on the agenda. Please attend and help to make the Chamber of Commerce a strong and active force in the community. Coffee will be served.

Council studies water, highway upgrading

Water supply upgrading and highway redevelopment were important topics of discussion at Monday's regular meeting of Elk Point Town Council.

Installation of two 8 inch water mains under one block of 50th Street to facilitate adequate water supply to consumers in pressure zone #2 was approved. The two lines will be laid side by side in a single trench between 54 Avenue and 55 Avenue. The Town has sufficient pipe for this project on hand, so the only cost involved will be for valves and fittings.

The installation could save considerable money by eliminating a need for pressure reducing stations between the pressure zones, if pressure relief valves are used.

A cost estimate will be obtained on another water supply line modification, which would hook together a 10 inch water main and a 14 inch main in the north subdivision, and subsequently increase the supply of water in pressure zone #2.

Pavement over the new water lines already installed was also discussed, with further study of unsatisfactory compaction densities to be made before making the next progress payment on the project.

Approximately 700 yards of asphalt waste removed from streets prior to the water line excavation is now stockpiled in Robertson Construction's pit, and the Town will ask that it be moved to a suitable location on Town property. A large additional amount of the material was used as deep base fill on the reconstruction of 54 Street.

A new access road to the water treatment plant is necessary due to the reconstruction of SR646. The Town will ask Alberta Transportation if this road can come off the portion of an access road to the Kinjerski farmstead which is within the Alberta Transportation right of way.

Regarding the reconstruction of Highway 41, Council authorized Alberta Power to proceed with power line relocation at an estimated cost of $205,000. Tenders for the reconstruction close today, and a special meeting of Council has been called for Friday, August 29 to review the engineer's recommendation on the project and to award the tender, if appropriate.

A sanitary sewer connection to satisfy future residential needs north of 57 Avenue will be included in the highway reconstruction, with the cost of materials to come from water and sewer reserve funds.

Council approved an agreement for funding for the Family and Community Support Services program from April 1, 1986 to March 31, 1987. The program portion of the $37,610 grant has been increased from $2 to $4 per capita.

Elk Point's official 1986 population has been announced as 1289 bona fide residents, up 6.7% from last year.

hectares from 64 hectares for seven sections of land, and a cyclic steam stimulation process to be used in two sections of land based on four-hectare well spacing. Fresh water required for the cyclic steam process will be obtained from the North Saskatchewan River using the Westmin Resources Limited water pipeline system.

Once completed, phase one of the project will produce an average of 500 cubic metres of bitumen per day and will incorporate 113 existing wells with another 165 wells to be drilled over the next 20 years.

The ERCB is able to withdraw approval of any parts of the project for which construction has not commenced after three years, Little said.

CELEBRITY GOLFER — Former NHL hockey player Wayne Morusyk is welcomed home to Elk Point by Mayor Ed Buck. Morusyk played minor hockey here before being drafted by the Boston Bruins. Morusyk said Elk Point is "still home to me", and donated his first prize in the Third Flight to the Elk Point Minor Hockey Association: "They can raffle it off and earn some funds."

Dewberry News Roundup

By Cliff Cunningham
Dewberry Correspondent

It was a shock to everyone when they got word that Bob Repp passed away in a tractor accident. His funeral was in the United Church in Vermilion, Saturday, August 16, with an extra large crowd attending and a nice lunch after the funeral in the Elks Hall. We are all in sympathy with his wife, Betty, their family, and relatives.

Saturday, August 16, was a busy day for us as we went to the Repp funeral and then the Dewberry mini fair, then in the evening to Vernon and Susie Nelson's 25th wedding anniversary supper and dance at Clandonald.

If nobody wants to take my place at writing the Dewberry news, I will keep on for a while with some help from Shirley, as Clandonald and Dewberry are like one big district. There are some people from Clandonald that are members of the Dewberry curling club and some from Dewberry that are members of the Clandonald fish and game. There are also some hockey players from Clandonald that play with Dewberry teams.

Bill Brock is home now after spending a week or more in the Vermilion Health Care Complex. We all hope you are feeling a lot better Bill.

Church service is still being held in the Dewberry school sponsored by the United Church, with Bob Dybvig as speaker and others helping out in singing gospel songs etc. at 10:30 a.m. every Sunday.

Marge Cunningham is still taking therapy treatments at the East End Clinic in Vermilion and is using crutches part of the time. Winifred Curtis is still in the Vermilion Health Care Complex and will be there for another week or so.

Snelgrove's construction have been doing some street work in Dewberry and are waiting for ground to dry up to finish the job. The forms are all in for the new co-op store and plumbing is being done before they run the cement.

Our weather has been good this last week except some strong winds, but no rain. Some barley is getting ripe and some rape has been swathed. Low this last week was 40 degrees F; high was 82 degrees F.

Happy birthday to all that have a birthday in the month of August.

They can't do it alone, and it would be unfair to expect them to do so. A Chamber of Commerce, like any club or organization, is only as strong and effective as the people who belong to it.

Many good ideas are presented in Chamber meetings, but only a portion of these are ever carried out, because of the sheer inability of the small number usually attending these meetings to do three things at once.

At the beginning of 1986, almost twenty short - and long - term goals were put forth by the executive after a brainstorming session. To date, six of these have been addressed. True, these six have been well done and have been an overall benefit to the Chamber, but if time had permitted, there is little doubt that the others would have been equally good.

They need help.

They need involvement.

They need YOU -- the Chamber members: the business persons, who are affected by the promotions, the tourist trade, the development of a strong

Let's all pitch in and make 1986-87 the Elk Point Chamber's best year ever.

IT'S BEEN FUN — A long, play-filled summer has come to an end for Elk Point's Summer Recreation staffers Anna Fedorus, Carmen Gulayec and Kate Courtier and their little friends, who celebrated with a wind-up party last Thursday.

Take care

This weekend's tragic death of a sixteen year old St. Paul resident in an automobile mishap has reminded us again of the need for cautious driving on gravel roads.

Loose gravel can cause even the most experienced driver to lose control of a vehicle. Thick dust is also a hazard. The narrow road surfaces, blind hills, and slow moving farm vehicles are other dangers to be encountered.

Several similar accidents have happened in our immediate area in recent weeks, but with no fatalities, or even serious injuries, fortunately.

Please drive extra carefully on the rural roads. We don't want you to be the topic of our next sad story.

A few words on marriage

By Irene Magnusson

Having written out a Congratulations card for a new marriage of young friends, and a Sympathy card to a grieving new widow at the close of a thirty-year span, both on the same day, my mind was filled with thoughts of marriage and wonderings at the ways of this human condition.

When such a large portion of marriages end in divorce or desertion, and many in violence, even murder, why do young people - and many not so young - embark so hopefully on this joint venture? Ask them, and if they'll tell you anything at all, they will say "For love of each other".

There are possibly a hundred other reasons, too, but that is surely the main one. We want someone to be nice to us, to care about our problems, fears, frustrations. We'd like someone to share our troubles, plans, hopes and the labor of our days. We try to find that certain someone, someone we can admire, adore, love. And then we hope they will admire, adore, love us in return. We do anything and everything to make them care for us. And then we marry.

We do not marry to have someone to teach us table manners, or how to drive the car, or what to say in public. We marry to have someone to be nice to us, We want a hand to hold, a soft voice with kind and loving words when we pain, someone beside us in the dark (dark of night - or day), someone to praise our honest effort and sympathize when we fail. Parents are for teaching manners, and how to drive. Teachers can direct us in what to say in public, and what not to say.

If men and women would, before they tie the nuptial knot, carefully look their prospective partners over, with both eyes wide open, and think to themselves "Can I really spend the rest of my life with this person, who dribbles cigarette ashes on the table, drinks too much, is always late for appointments, tells the same pointless stories over and over?" - or whatever bad habits, according to your standards, he/she has. And while you are thinking about it, try to realize this person is probably on his/her best behavior, and that anything that aggravates you now, will return to twice as bad shortly after marriage, when the effort to please weakens a trifle.

If you can't honestly say "I can take it," you had better think twice. It's no use to tell yourself you can change that person, sort of jack 'em up, explain the faults and habits you don't care for and expect them to change. You have no right to ask another person to change. And no business expecting it.

Sure, we can change, and we often do - some for better, but some for worse - but it will only be an effective change if we, ourselves, wish it. Never for someone else's demands.

And all this brings us back to why I think so many marriages fail. We not only don't try hard enough to get to know the person we would marry, we often close our eyes to personality traits we can hardly stand that are clearly obvious. Then we wonder why the divorce rate is so high.

It is not enough that a person is cute, curly and cuddly or tall, dark and handsome, not even that your chemical reactions flame high. To make a marriage work, there has to be someone over there on the other side who is going to be nice to you a good most of the time. So you'd better have a few traits worthy of admiration.

Continual criticizing and blaming will get you no points; making excuses for the other's human frailties will. Decent manners rate very high for prolonging a relationship. If there is any place in the world where "Please", "Thank you", and "I'm sorry", are called for, it's in the marriage situation. Strangers you can insult and berate, perhaps with only a punch in the nose for your reward; after all, you may never see them again. But a lack of courtesy to a loved one is a fairly sure way of losing that love, along with any respect that came with it.

Handle love with extreme care. It is most precious. A slap on the wrist from someone you love is worse than a kick in the teeth from anyone else. None of us can be perfect, and a caring spouse will forgive and forgive, if they see we are trying.

I grieve for you, who have lost loving partners through no fault of your own, and for you, who have thrown your loves away. A good marriage, with mutual respect and consideration, along with the spark of love, is beyond price.

Even memories of someone who cared enough to be nice to you, are pearls to treasure when you walk alone.

OORP to head Arthritis Society fundraising

The Elk Point Order of the Royal Purple will head The Arthritis Society's fundraising Community Mail Campaign to be held next week in Elk Point.

In making the announcement, Dolores Sellick, the Society's Community Relations Director, said, "We appreciate the members of the Royal Purple sacrificing their time and effort to be our volunteer workers."

"Arthritis is this country's number one chronic disease, and, in recent years, the Society has mounted a major attack on this insidious disease through its widening research program aimed at finding the cause and hence a cure for arthritis."

The Royal Purple will arrange for the delivery of a special envelope to every household and business in Elk Point, for receiving donations and for issuing income tax receipts.

Honored Royal Lady Erika Bender said, "Steady progress is being made through Society-funded research. More is now known about the disease. Advances in treatment, therapy and forms of control have been significant. The need for further research is urgent. So is the need for funds. We are using a Mail Campaign because we don't have enough people to do a house-to-house canvass of the community. We feel the people of Elk Point will do their part too when they receive their envelopes, and give more than a thought to arthritis."

NO ROOM FOR STUDENTS? — Classrooms at Heinsburg School were shoulder deep in books, boxes and venetian blinds as remodelling of the school got underway. However, we're sure all will be in readiness for classes early next week.

Ready for classes Sept. 2nd?

By Irene Magnusson

You've got to be kidding? The briefest glance in passing shows the school at Heinsburg to be in a state of mass reconstruction, only now well under way.

The firm of GenMac from Bonnyville, in charge of the $1.9 million renovations, arrived on the scene August 5th. Under Superintendent of Construction Walter Shutter's able directions, walls have fallen, tiles have been ripped off, windows pried out. Bathroom fixtures stand in rows, out in the grass. Light fixtures are stock-piled like cordwood, for sale or other disposal. All will be replaced with new.

No remnant remains of the old, old school, the first part built and for long years used as the entry to the school. This will be replaced. A couple of classrooms, stuck on for emergency use, were pulled off and parked over in the skating rink area. These will be replaced with real rooms.

Contents of the school - books, desks, chairs, everything movable - have been stuffed temporarily into those rooms not under remodelling, such as the gym. No group of students could create such a mess, even at their most creatively disruptive. A great stack of magazines, routed from library shelves, has been spilled into a giant trough - a drawer normally used to stack extra chairs under the stage.

New, but less, windows will replace the old; fresh ceilings, walls and bathrooms will greet the students' return - hopefully, by May of next year.

With all this activity, which spells jobs for craftsmen, sales for building suppliers, and taxes well spent mean extended holidays for the students, time off for the teachers, and a recess for the school books? Not at all.

Elementary students will be accommodated in the Heinsburg Community Hall, probably an exciting but noisy change for them. Junior High students will gather in the portable classrooms, now parked around the schoolyard. Some have seen these before, so that will not be new. Senior High students, who are really young adults, and should be able to carry on their studies despite the hammerings, sawings and other sounds of construction around them, will continue in the present classrooms, presumably cleared of rubble.

No doubt a Grand Opening, complete with V.I.P.s, will announce the conclusion of this major undertaking next spring, perhaps in time for Graduation. At that time there will be a brand new library, a new Home Ec. room, two new classrooms, and an appropriate number of new washrooms. The entire exterior will have been refurbished to blend all the additions into a harmonious whole. A 'new' school that students, teachers and parents alike will rejoice in. Congratulations, Heinsburg!

Elk Point crop report

August 22, 1986

There was a light frost in the area on August 20, 1986.

There has been no damage to crops this past week due to high temperatures, lack of rainfall, excess rainfall or snowfall.

Swathing should be general in our area commencing on August 29 and combining on September 15.

The estimate percentage of swathing completed is 100% Winter Wheat, 5% Oats, 5% Barley, 100% Fall Rye and 5% Canola. The estimate percentage of combining completed is 50% for Fall Rye.

The estimate percentage of each crop which is currently ripening or ripened is 25% for Hard Red Spring Wheat, 40% for Barley and 55% for Canola.

The estimate average yield per acre in kilograms based on total acreage is 1100 kg for Hard Red Spring Wheat, 1089 kg for Winter Wheat, 1234 kg for Oats, 1524 for Barley, 1016 kg for Fall Rye and 454 kg for Canola.

Assuming favorable harvest weather, the estimate percentage of each grade of grain which may be harvested is:

- A. Hard Spring Wheat - 2 CWRs - 5%, 3 CWRs - 80%, Can. Feed - 15%.
- B. Barley - 1 Feed - 100%.
- C. Canola - 1 Canada - 80%, 2 Canada - 20%.

Sunny warm weather has helped the crop along its road to maturity, but more warm weather is definitely needed. The risk of a killing frost becomes ever more important for crop quality as a good portion of the crop is still very green. A couple of weeks without a killing frost is needed badly.
